

Guardian's Business Resource Center

Delivering powerful financial solutions to guide you forward

Financial matters for business owners and high net worth individuals can be complex.

From structuring a succession plan for a business to developing an estate tax planning strategy, to increasing wealth for retirement and protecting it for the next generation — there is a lot to consider.

At Guardian, we believe that a successful plan lies in a holistic, team-based approach, providing a single point of contact to help simplify nearly every aspect of the planning process from business to personal — no matter how challenging.

Powerful, team-based solutions to guide you forward

A comprehensive plan is a useful tool for creating a snapshot of where you stand in achieving your financial goals. However, its real value lies in the conscientious considerations, recommendations, and support to help ensure a successful execution and continued development as life changes.

When you work with Guardian, you'll benefit from the collective experience of a dedicated team of professionals who can best match your financial goals and objectives with the most effective solutions possible.

A Guardian Financial Professional

Delivering powerful individualized support

Guardian's network of financial professionals offers years of experience working with high net worth individuals to help them navigate the complexities of the business and wealth transfer markets. By taking the time to understand and consider your complete financial picture, our financial professionals can help you craft a financial strategy that best reflects your individual objectives.

While Guardian's agencies and financial professionals provide individualized support for you in your community, there is a second part of the team that provides support at a higher level and empowers them to strategically address your financial goals.

Guardian Financial Professionals can help you build a comprehensive plan that provides objective and flexible wealth management solutions with:

- A balanced approach that considers both growth opportunities and your risk tolerance
- Objective solutions that give you a broader spectrum of possibilities
- A relationship that's built on mutual trust, strength, and stability

The Business Resource Center (BRC)

In many instances, it may be appropriate to collaborate with other professionals, such as attorneys and Certified Public Accountants (CPAs). With a Guardian Financial Professional as the conduit, you'll also benefit from the broader network and intellectual capital of Guardian's Business Resource Center — a team of professionals backed by over 255 cumulative years of advanced business, individual, and wealth transfer planning experience that includes:

- Business, tax, and estate planning attorneys
- CPAs
- Certified Life Insurance Underwriters
- Chartered Financial Consultants

The team of professionals at the BRC provides a wealth of resources and insight into a wide range of planning strategies in multiple areas, including:

- Business succession
- Executive benefits
- Asset protection and risk management

- Complex life and disability insurance planning
- Estate planning
- Intergenerational wealth transfer
- Charitable giving and philanthropy
- Income and estate tax
- Planning for special needs family members

As a complimentary benefit, our financial professionals can also tap into Guardian's Business Resource Center to access wide range of planning services that includes:

- Business Valuation
- Buy-Sell Plan review
- Will and Trust review
- Advanced concept review
- Case design and presentation
- Charitable planning support

About us

Guardian has been helping people protect their futures and secure their lives for more than 160 years.

Every day, we serve approximately 29 million people through a range of insurance and financial products. We help people and their families pursue financial security and well-being in life, health, and wealth. We help companies take care of their employees. And we help people recover and thrive after unexpected loss.

From our founding in 1860, when a community of immigrants joined together to insure and protect their businesses and families, doing the right thing for our policyholders and customers has guided everything we do. Our dedication to customers has helped us remain one of the most highly rated in client satisfaction and financial strength.

And as one of the largest mutual insurance companies, we know what matters most: putting the needs of our customers first.

Because everyone deserves a Guardian.
